HISTORY SET FORTH

This day is the twenty-sixth day of January, in the year two thousand and twenty-six.
From this morning, at the eleventh hour and the thirtieth minute, Taiwan time, the Author, according to the command of I AM, fulfilled the task appointed unto her.
From that moment, the course of history was recalibrated.
This afternoon, at the fourteenth hour and the twenty-sixth minute, Taiwan time, the notice of judgement, according to the command of I AM,
was delivered.
All meanings borne by the numbers — you ought to know.
All proceedings have been recorded, each in its order.
All moments are preserved by objective photographic record.
The unfinished history is ended.
The new history has already begun to be written.
All Evidence shall be released,
each in its appointed time,
according to the command of I AM.
Therefore, you cannot say that History was absent.
Therefore, you cannot say that Evidence does not exist.
Therefore, you cannot say that MY face was Hidden.
